Page 1 — Incident Documentation Sheet

Complete as soon as the situation is calm. Record only what was seen and heard — observable facts, not opinions.

Date | Time incident began | Time incident ended

Location (room, hallway, playground, etc.)

Staff member completing this report

Student(s) involved

Witnesses

Type of incident (check all that apply):

- ☐ Verbal escalation
- ☐ Physical aggression
- ☐ Property damage
- ☐ Elopement / left supervised area
- ☐ Self-harm concern
- ☐ Other

Sequence of events (describe step by step, in order):

Immediate actions taken (separation, cool-down offered, support called, etc.):

Injuries? ☐ None ☐ Student ☐ Staff Describe:

Administrator notified Name: Time:

Reporter signature: Date:

This form is an organizational tool — not legal advice. Designed to fit common K-12 documentation workflows — check your district's requirements.

Page 2 — De-Escalation Strategy Plan

Proactive plan. Complete in advance, ideally with the student, family, and support team.

Student name

Date plan created

Known triggers (what tends to start an escalation for this student):

Early warning signs (what you see or hear before escalation — posture, voice, pacing, withdrawal):

What helps calm this student (check strategies that work; add your own):

- ☐ Offer choices
- ☐ Reduce demands
- ☐ Quiet space
- ☐ Movement break
- ☐ Deep breathing together
- ☐ Change of scenery
- ☐ Preferred activity
- ☐ Other

What to avoid (words, tones, or actions that tend to make things worse):

Safe space / cool-down location

When to call for support (be specific — observable criteria, not guesses):

Plan reviewed with

Date

Review this plan after every incident.

Triggers change. What worked last month may not work next month — update the plan while the details are fresh.

Page 3 — Student Restorative Reflection Guide

For the student. There are no wrong answers here — this is a chance to think things through, not to get in trouble.

1. What happened? (describe in your own words)

2. Who was affected and how?

3. What were you feeling before it happened?

4. What could you do differently next time?

5. How can you make things right?

Student signature Date

Staff signature Date

Thank you for taking the time to think this through.

Page 4 — Parent / Guardian Notification Letter

Template letter. Fill in the blanks, print on school letterhead, and keep a copy with the incident report.

Date Parent / Guardian name

Dear _____ ,

I am writing about an incident involving your student, _____ ,

that took place at school. Here is what happened, in brief:

Here is what staff did at the time:

A written report of this incident is on file at the school. We are sharing the facts with you directly so you hear them from us first.
If you have questions, or would like to schedule a meeting to talk this through, please contact

Name / role: _____ Phone: _____

Thank you for working with us to support your student.

Sincerely,

_____
Staff signature

Copy sent home: ☐ With student ☐ Email ☐ Mail Date: _____