Tier 3 Intensive Plan

Use when Tier 2 supports have not produced enough progress.

A. Functional Behavior Summary

Antecedent / trigger

What usually happens right before the behavior? (time, place, people, task)

Behavior

What does the student do or say? Describe only what can be seen or heard.

Consequence / what maintains it

What happens right after? What might the student get, or get out of?

☐ Daily 1:1 check-in
☐ Modified schedule
☐ Sensory / movement breaks
☐ Counselor sessions
☐ Peer mentor
☐ Other — describe in the box

Progress-Monitoring Graph

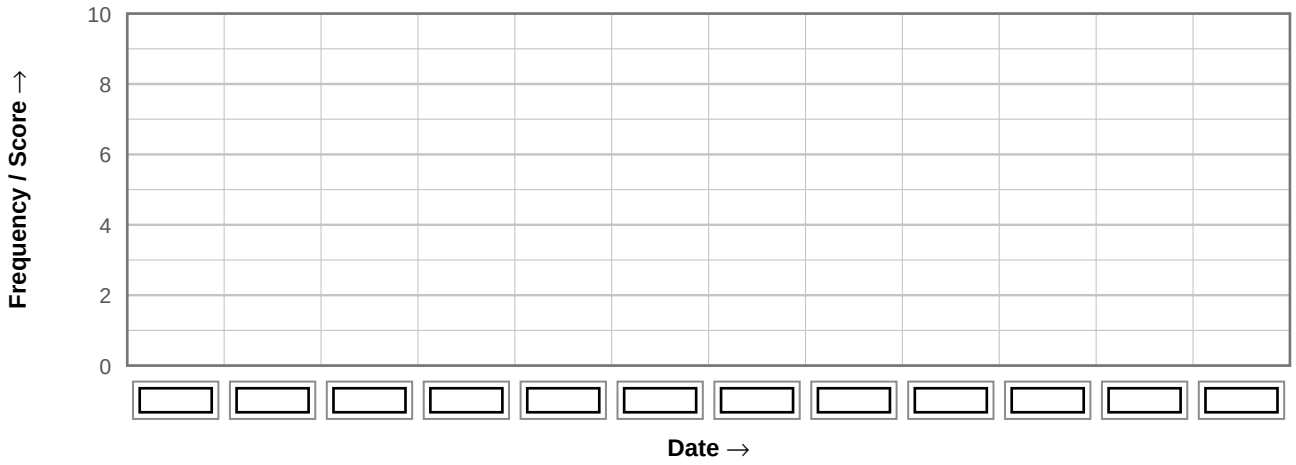

Log one row per date in the table, then plot one point per date on the graph.

Date	Score / Frequency	Notes

Missed a data point?

Leave it blank — never guess or backfill scores. Write the reason (absence, assembly, no coverage) in the Notes column. One missed day will not break the trend; a guessed number will.

Plot

Goal value _____ (draw a horizontal line across the graph at this value)

Parent / Guardian Communication Letter

Fill in the bracketed fields, then send this letter home or hand it to the parent/guardian.

Dear parent/guardian of [ ],

Date: [ ]

Our student support team is starting a behavior support plan for your child. This letter explains what the plan is, what will happen at school, and how we will keep you informed.

What is happening: [ ] will take part in [ ], a [ ] level of support in our school's Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS). This means your child gets extra coaching and positive feedback during the school day.

What it involves: each day your child will check in with a trusted adult in the morning, carry a simple daily tracking sheet, and check out before going home. Staff will notice and reward the positive behaviors we want to see more of, and we will teach and practice a replacement skill your child can use instead.

How we share progress: the daily tracking sheet will come home so you can see each day's points. The team will review your child's progress on [ ] and decide together whether to continue, adjust, or end the plan.

Your voice matters: if you have questions or ideas, please contact [ ]. You know your child best, and we want this plan to work for your family too.

Thank you for partnering with us.

Sincerely,
